

Activities for World Social Forum 2005

1. Panel and Book Launch: ALTERNATIVES IN ACTION

Book: Living Alternatives: Experiences and Citizens' Proposals against Globalization

WHEN: 29 January, 2005, 15:30 a 18:00 hrs (Turno 3)

WHERE: Room/Sala E-105 (carpa E), Porto de Porto Alegre

- Alternatives in Action in Latin America, Sara Larrain, Sustainable Chile /IFG, Chile
- Agriculture and Sustainable Consumption, Jose Lobato, COOLMEIA, Brazil
- Fair Trade, Catalina Soza, Sinti-Sacha, Ecuador and Daniel Jafre, Fair Trade Int'l.
- Sustainable Management of Ecosystems: Isabel Leon, Coopsilencio, Costa Rica
- Recovering the Commons in our Constitutions: Karin Nansen, Sustainable Uruguay

This panel aims to contribute to the visibility, strengthening, and articulation of the experiences and proposals that local communities are developing today. During this panel, different organizations from Latin America will present their experiences in building living alternatives. Based on the experiences, we will discuss the international obstacles they face and how they can be overcome to multiply.

2. Panel and Book Launch: Governance for Global Justice

Book: Alternatives to Economic Globalization: A Better World Is Possible

WHEN: 29 January, 2005, 19:00 a 21:00 hrs (Turno 4)

WHERE: Room/Sala E-105 (carpa E) Porto de Porto Alegre

- The IFG's Program on Alternatives, Debi Barker, IFG
- Alternatives to the WTO and Int'l. Financial Institutions: John Cavanagh, IPS, US
- Reclaiming the Commons: Maude Barlow, Council of Canadians, Canada
- Approaching Alternatives: Candido Grzybowski, IBASE, Brazil
- Indigenous Perspectives on Alternatives: Victoria Tauli-Corpuz, Tebtebba, The Philippines
- The Search for Alternatives in the Southern Cone: Sara Larrain, Sustainable Chile, Chile
- Alternatives from Rural Communities: Victor Menotti, IFG

This panel links the local struggles for alternatives to the demands of the international movement for global justice. Launching the new edition of one of the most important books to advance the discussion about alternatives to economic globalization, the IFG proposes new international policies to establish democratic control over the international economy and to relocalize economic systems for people.